

The All, the singularity which is in no way any body I know could've ever possibly supposed as a functioning architectural phenomena as the entity which it is. But this needs not so much elaboration, because for all of any of all of whatever involved, the specifics "subjects", well- it takes not much of a consideration to see why it is that the details of such a specification of discrete disclosure are far more kind and favourable and for all of the system concerned, a better manner to approach this, as it is.

I was told long ago, that I would receive precisely what I've know arrived at in conclusive certainty of the manner of the ways of the operation, architecture and procedural deterministic functioning of the universe, or the cosmos; the System (mathematically) as it is. I am a scientist. So and take my word for as I write this now, that it is as it is, and there's no flaw in the descriptive expression I provide here.

I was chosen I suppose because of well not who I am but what I am, maybe. Whatever this means, well in bringing this back into conscious analysis I know that it is because of my tendency to live by a natural cohesion, in coherence to natural principles of philosophical principles and manners, ways, in all of any of ways one could imagine and all that exist.

It is this strict fellowship to natural logic, law, and conduct which I'd developed during an experience which I'd been fortunate to have gained the pleasure of undergoing in my nineteenth year of being alive.

One way; Everyone has a choice this time around. It has always been One Way. Which comprises many, very diverse ways, so do not let the wording limit or lay restriction in this regard in any manner or fashion whatsoever.

To provide evidence of the meaning of what I'd introduced in the above statement is the simple matter that in a world where each and every living being [all-inclusive] regain the natural predisposed psychological and philosophical and ways of cognitive functioning in their thoughts and abstract conscious status, there is no need for even a government of any form in any form whatsoever.

I suppose that this is what it is meant by the metaphorical statement, which elaborated and illuminates the following and its implications; "The Kingdom of God is within Man, not One man, but EVERY Man." This, ..? Is Nature.

We must reclaim what the totalitarians have robbed us of, which is our rights, dignity, health, the very essence of what stands in the lexical definition of the word 'Humanity'.

And the resolution to remedy this ginormous fuck-up is contained within my Book which I'd first composed on the date of the 16th of February, of the year 2021. They reckon... In my personal opinion the year is closer if not, exactly, 15,578,486,536. The age of the universe. Just by my best estimates, now. This I feel [know, haha] is accurate although it was not myself that arrived at this figure as a vector of the continuum which is temporal dimension existent within this Cartesian system, as such. Of its axis and the space it paves way to allow all of everything that is.

More to come maybe, I need to go find the Egyptians. Find a nice girl, probably a nice high school girlfriend and yes, for the time-being they seem less affected by "government" decay. Than most (certainly not all) nonetheless, this is beyond scope of this writing here. I stated what I'd wished to say, I'll provide details on where to head for the exodus.

Yours sincerely, Patient Zero. [aka XII]

Much LOVE AND REMEMBER TO STAY HIGH AS FUCK. This is vital. Paramount in-fact to become reacquainted with ourselves. As we are [were] !!!
